Scouting Report on himself: I feel like I'm aggressive, have a quick first step and can get to the rim really well. I do well with getting my teammates involved and leading the team with a positive attitude. I can also shoot the ball really well from deep and lock down the point guard. I can work on seeing the court better on the defensive end and helping my teammates more in help side. Also, I can work on my mid-range shooting and attacking more with my right hand. Even though that's my dominant hand, I'm just better with driving left and finishing with my non-dominant hand.

Scouting Report from AAU coach Rick Ellsworth: KJ is an explosive guard. He is deadly from the outside, and with his great ball handling he can get to the rim and finish. Defensively, he's a lockdown defender. Pressuring the ball and attacking passing lanes, his hands are always on the ball. KJ is also a good rebounder for the guard position and plays the game with a high IQ.

On playing for Indiana Elite: It's been really good and fun playing with a group of guys that aren't selfish and are good players. It couldn't be better playing with good players and being able to play your game because everyone plays well together and gets along. We want to see each other do well and play well.

Best game ever: My best game ever was in middle school (8th grade) at Westlane playing with Jordan Walker, Garrett Holland, Eron Gordon and Antonio Singleton. We played Paul Scruggs and CJ Walker from Attucks and it was a sold out game and in the newspaper and everything. I had 18 and it came down to the wire. We ended up winning a really intense game.
