

Indiana Elite 2018

IE 2018 had 1 game today against Urban ASAK, after building a 35-21 halftime lead, 2018 struggled in the 2nd half and lost a heartbreaker 56-48. Mekhi Larry (Evansville Bosse) was the only player in double figures with 10 points. Elite will look to rebound with 2 games tomorrow at 9:20 against perennial power DreamVision and 1:20 against Texas Pro.

Indiana Elite 2019

IE 2019 went 2-0 today with wins over Garner Road and Cali Boost. Against Garner Road, Alex Hemenway (Castle) went for 15 points followed by 14 from Jeremiah Francis (Pick Central OH). As always with this team it's scoring balance paid dividends. Manual Brown (Scecina) had 9 points and played great defense off the bench. Kyle Rode had 11, and Aristide Boya pitched in 9 points and a plethora of blocks and changed shots. Game 2 saw a scrappy Cali Boost team give IE its toughest game of the young season. Alex Hemenway dropped 17 points, and Michael Moreno (Scott County Ky) had 15. Kyle Rode had 11 points and made his usual hustle plays to give IE the edge. Jeremiah Francis added in 10 points. IE 2019 is in the Semi Finals and will face longtime rival Dreamvision, whom IE defeated last season to end the summer in the Adidas Super 64 Title Game.

Indiana Elite 2020

The 2020 group has simply been dominate in every outing this season. The day started with a 61-37 win over Basketball U. Michael Mayer (Cov. Catholic Ky.) had 14 pts, and was a man child all day long using his strength to score and play tough defense, Trey Galloway (Culver Military) had 22 points scoring every way possible. In game 2 against Gateway Basketball Club, the depth and overall skill of the group was shown once again, as they simply wore down the talented group from Saint Louis. Every IE player scored at least 5 points in the 59-28 win, led by Tayson Parker's (Indy Homeschool) 12 pts. IE 2020 is in the Final 4 of this tourney at 8AM tomorrow against a tall and skilled D1 Minnesota Club.
