

Adidas Gauntlet Atlanta

IE 2020

IE 2020 started its journey with a 87-49 blowout win of Team Ramey Jets United. Scoring was well balanced with multiple guys in double figures. Game 2 was a familiar face as IE took on Team Teague 2021, Anthony Leal (Bloomington South) finished with 18 points to lead the way. Mabor Majak (HSE) dominated inside providing 14 points, multiple blocks and plenty of rebounds and the always consistent Trey Galloway (Culver Military) added in 14 points as well, which all led to a comfortable 72-54 win. In the Semifinals IE 2020 was pitted up against Garner Road. Leal and Galloway again led the way with 16 and 15 points each, while Nigel Pack (LC), Tayson Parker (Indy Homeschool) and Mabor Majak all added 8-10 points each as IE won 64-50. The Championship game saw a rematch with D1 Minnesota, a team IE 2020 beat by 10 last week in the semifinals of a hotly contested game. In a defensive battle it was the balance of IE that kept it going. 6 players scored between 5 and 8 points with Nigel Pack dropping 13 to lead the way. However it was the late heroics of Anthony Leal down the stretch which pulled IE through. Down 4 with under a minute Leal buried a 3 pointer to cut it to 1, and then another one next possession to give IE a lead it would never give up in the 53-49 win. Coach Mike Fox was impressed with maturity of his team and couldn't say enough about the growth it has made in such a short time, with much praise for his well-rounded wing players, who score, pass, defend all positions, and rebound. IE 2020 will be in action this weekend at the Run n Slam.

IE 2019

IE 2019 defended its Gauntlet title from last weekend by defeating 4 quality opponents in Atlanta to move to 15-0 on the season. The tourney started with MBA Hoops, whom IE beat 67-54 in its opener Saturday. Alex Hemenway (Castle) paced IE with 18pts, Cobie Barnes (Floyd Central) 16pts and Michael Moreno (Scott County Ky.) added in 10pts. Game 2 saw the uber athletic Miami Team Knight pressure and press IE 2019 all over the floor. It was of no use though as IE's guards and skilled forwards shredded the press on their way to an 84 point performance in a 84-66 win. Jeremiah Francis (Pickerton Central OH) scored 18 pts. and dished out plenty of assists as Michael Moreno had another big game with 17 pts. Cobie Barnes (14pts) and Kyle Rode (13pts) continued their consistent play. IE 2019 ran into D1 Minnesota in the Semi's, the same strong Minnesota team who IE had beat in last week's championship games. IE won this one 57-51, scoring efforts were disturbed evenly as 5 guys (Moreno, Francis, Hemenway, Boya and Barnes) scored between 7-11 points. The championship game against Dreamvision (whom IE beat in last week's semifinals) was a clinic as IE led from start to finish in an 80-60 win. Jeremiah Francis paced the way 25 pts. and 8 assists, Michael Moreno added 17pts and 7rebs. Cobie Barnes finished a strong weekend with 10 and Kyle Rode added 11, Big men Aristide Boya (4 blocks, 10 rebs) and Sydney Curry combined for 16 and dominated the inside yet again. Manual Brown closed out a great weekend with 9pts. Coach Mark Adams said he has been impressed with how the team picked up where they left off last year and with the addition of a whole new backcourt, how well both the returners and newcomers have gelled so quickly to become such a good group so fast.

IE 2018

IE 2018 finished Gauntlet play with a 2-6 record. The team suffered some key injuries and tough breaks along the way, but there were a lot of positives. Jake Walter (Cov Catholic Ky.) and Chance Coyle (Bloom South) earned more offers, Jackson Marcotte (Mt. Carmel III) and Mekhi Larry (Bosse) saw their stocks rise. With star player Rob Phinisse (McCutcheon) sidelined with knee issues and CJ Frederick (Cov. Catholic Ky.) not at 100% IE struggled to a 1-3 weekend, knocking off Stackhouse Elite 69-64. But fell to high quality teams in Mass Rivals, D1 Minnesota, and K-Low Elite. In the win over Stackhouse Elite, IE put 4 guys in double figures led by CJ Frederick's scored 19 points, Jackson Marcotte's 14, Chance Coyle's 12, and Mekhi Larry's (Bosse) 11. IE 2018 will be back in action in the Adidas May Classic.

Adidas Prospect Series Atlanta

IE Diesel 2019

Indiana Elite Diesel moved to 9-0 on the season with all double digits wins in Atlanta. This team was spearheaded by the efforts of Luke Heady, Andrew Owens (Carmel) and Luke Richardson (Lapel). Coach Windlan couldn't say enough about how the whole team shared the ball throughout the weekend and played great team D. This team is quietly one of the better teams in the state, and is one to watch yet again this year.

IE2K20 and IE Central 2020

Both IE Central 2020 and IE 2K20 took home runner up trophies in the prospect series as well. IE 2K20 beat 6th Man Warriors 54-51, Mid-South Kings 73-50, and Team Rivals 65-62, before falling to the talented Mid-Ohio Pumas Elite 76-61. IE Central beat 6th Man Warriors 58-46, The Program 79-39, and Wiz kids 68-41, before falling to CKY magic 59-27.

Adidas Spring Class Indianapolis

IE North 2020

IE North 2020 moved to 12-1 on the season with its 2nd championship of the young season. IE North faced off against Breakaway Basketball in its first pool game. Breakaway had won the King of the Rock tourney last weekend in Chicago. But North's pressure D and balanced attack hammered out an easy 73-50 win. Game 2 against Gym Rats Red was more of the same with a dominating 87-31 win in which 7 players reached double figures. In the tourney stages IE North took on Ohio Knockout and won 72-54 with more of its typical tough D and well rounded offensive attack. The championship game saw 8 players scoring at least 6 points, led by Malek Edmonds (Brownsburg) 16pts., Grant Coleman's (Mahomet-Seymour IL) 15pts and 8 rebs, and Alex Szilagyi's (Fishers) 15 pts. Justin Long (Fishers) had 8 assists and 4 steals. Jake Archbold (Homestead), Edreece Redmond (Chatard) and Travis Upshaw (LC) continued their consistent season with big games all across the stat sheet, Jason Graves (Pike) had 10 pts, and Dashon Scott (Pike) had multiple big games throughout the weekend. Coaches Frank Kendrick and Tom Long love the team comradery and commented on how well they have gelled as a group on and off the court, as well as the balance and overall depth of the team. They feel they have “9 starters,” and feel confident in putting in any kid at any time.

IE 2021

This team dominated from start to finish despite missing a few key players. They went 5-0 on the weekend with wins of 83-33, 68-37, 86-28, 75-39 and in the championship dominated a very good All In team from Illinois with an 80-58 win. Nathaniel Hoskins (Danville IL) went off for 30 in the championship game, to lead 5 guys in double figures. Curt Hopf (Forest Park) was also in double figures every game including 22 in the championship. Malik Stanley and Sean Black (Warren Central) kept the IE machine running on both ends of the floor, with their ability to score, defend, and make plays for their teammates.

IE Metro 2019 and IE 2024

IE Metro 2019 took home the 16U Spring Classic title with wins over BC IN Legends (83-63), IE Force (71-65), and Champaign Heat (61-45) Center Grove products Spencer Piercefield and Ben Nicoson had 22 and 13 points respectively to lead the way Justin Hensley of Cathedral also had a very good weekend. Nick Reich's IE 2024 squad breezed through the competition, beating BCH 65-32 in the semi's and Team Elevate 47-14 in the title game.

HoopGroup JamFest Pittsburgh, PA

IE FastBreak 2019

IE FastBreak 2019 went out to the Pitt Hoop Group tourney and compiled a 5-0 record taking out Nike EYBL Albany City Rocks 60-56 in the championship game. Per coach Everett Blackmon Jakobie Robinson (Warren Central) was a stat stuffer. He did it all, led the team in rebounds, blocks and scored the ball in multiple ways including jump shots, post ups, dribble drives and put backs. Wendell Demyers (Northwest) was unstoppable in the open court. He got to the paint at will finished or created for others. He led the team in steals including 2 that ended in him dunking the ball. Jared Hankins (Lawrence North) continues to lead the team in scoring. He showed the ability to knock down the 3 off the catch, dribble and even step back. He was clutch at the line and made it to the stripe alot because he drove to the basket strong. In the championship, Jared showed he can also play defense putting the clamps on Albany Rocks best player. Jessie Bingham (Warren Central) also continues to show his improvement with great D and showing off with what's becoming a lethal pull up jumper. This team has quietly put together an outstanding season and has mostly played up in the 17U division until this past weekend. Look for them in Adidas May Classic in 2 weeks.

NEO Shooting Stars Classic Akron, OH

IE 2023

Rob Hoovers Group won their pool going 2-0, but fell early in bracket play to Elmcor.

IE 2025

Led by Deandre Lott, Luke Ertel, and Parker Robinson IE 2025 went 5-1, losing in the Final 4 to NOVA Classic by 1 point. The loss was the team's 6th game in a 26 hour time span.
